

Kossuth County Speedway in Algona, Iowa
The Place to be June 16-17

The Kossuth County Speedway, located in the welcoming town of Algona, Iowa will host two days of vintage racing excitement on June 16 and 17. According to Mark Holt, NDS director and founder, this season's theme is "Honoring America's Service Men and Women." All types of Vintage Cars and drivers are welcome to come out to this historic 4/10 mile race track for two days of action packed fun, history and a salute to our veterans. Also flat track motorcycles will be battling it out on Saturday for racing supremacy.

Friday will be test and tune: pit gate opens at 3 p.m. ($20 pit pass); testing begins at 4 p.m. with FREE grandstands.

Saturday fun activities will begin at noon and continue until 3 p.m. These activities include a car show; motorcycle and automotive swap meet; pit crew challenge; ride in a race car ; live music and much, much more.

While there, also plan to visit the Ag and Performance Motorsports Museum located on the grounds. It features many restored cars including the #98 owned by the Holt family and driven by Ron Holt for many years.

The pits will open at 3 p.m. with a drivers meeting at 4:30p.m. Admission for Grandstands:$20.00 for Adults and 15.00 Military (must show military ID or other proof of service at park check-in). Children 8 years old and under get in free with the purchase of an adult ticket.

Pit Passes will be $30 for adults (Military $25) and bike registration $50. Hot laps will begin at 5 p.m. for vintage cars and flat track motorcycles. Racing will follow.

Mark your calendars now so you don't miss any of the action!
To register to participate: contact Mark Holt at 2markholt@gmail.com